

Alice Piper Memorial Scholarship

Alice Piper, a 15-year-old Paiute student, made history in 1924 by successfully suing the Big Pine School District to integrate their classrooms and allow Indigenous students to attend their newly built school. The California Supreme Court Case, Piper v. Big Pine School District of Inyo County, not only changed the treatment of Indigenous students in California schools, but also set a precedent that was cited thirty years later in the U.S. Supreme Court case, Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, which declared racial segregation in public schools unconstitutional. - Ellie Kaplan, National Park Service
