Los Angeles, CA 90017

Dear Gail:

On behalf of HomeAid Los Angeles, I want to thank you for the opportunity to attend the excellent grantsmanship training program last month. I walked into the program knowing very little about grant proposal writing and left feeling confident and energized to begin the research and writing process. Now, instead of feeling daunted by a proposal, I can break down the funder's requirements into manageable pieces. In sharing what I learned with other members of my organization, I realized how prepared I now feel to begin this journey as a grant proposal writer.

We also want to thank you for the half-price scholarship we received for the program. We are a start-up non-profit with a budget under $200,000 – the discount made this course affordable and attainable for us. Thank you for your generosity in helping us learn what we need to grow as an organization and accomplish our mission.

We will be in touch about pursuing further opportunities with The Grantsmanship Center as they arise!

Sincerely,

Kevin Mitchell
